

Programmer Analyst

Job Duties/Responsibilities:

Supports the efforts, within the IT group. Develop, modify and test Oracle forms/reports, write PL/SQL software. Test and document software change request and perform general software life cycle activities. Performs assignments that required initiative and limited independent judgment in the selection and use of established principles and procedures. Develops professional work knowledge and abilities through the application of standard information systems methodology, techniques, procedures and criteria. Exercises limited but increasing judgment in performing assigned tasks. As part of normal job duties, employees may be required to be in an on-call status to be able to promptly respond to and address user/customer needs.

Minimum Qualifications/Skills Requirements:

- 1- BS in Computer Science or related technical field or eight years directly related experience.
 - 2- Basic knowledge of software development methodologies, tools and processes including Software Development Methodology Framework
 - 3- Basic knowledge of web-based technology, and application requirements
-